Dear Harold,

This is in response to your letter of 3/2/76. Freeda - who is confined to our apartment by having her left foot in a cast - put her free time to good use. She called up a half-dozen hotels in the midtown area with the following results:

	Rates
Summit Hotel - at the 51st St. -	$38, 42, 49
9 & 6 $800 Tudor Hotel - Tudor City - 42nd St & below. 1 blk E. Lexington 304 E 42nd St	$16, 17, 18, 20
Belmont Plaza - here 49th.	$28, 32, 36, 40
Biltmore Hotel - 44th & Madison	$43, 46, 49
Regency - 61st & Park Ave	$59, 69
Gramercy Park - here 21st	$30

So she made a reservation for you at the Tudor Hotel for March 17th. It's a long walk up to Hunter (68th St & Lexington) but not near the office of Dell Publishers - Hammerskjold Plaza - 7th Ave in the low forties.

I do hope we'll get to see you then. Freeda's cast is due to be removing her fifth metatarsal in her foot on Feb 23 when she slipped on a pothole in Brooklyn & fell. It will take six weeks to heal. Our love to you & Hal.

Look forward to seeing you

Love, Freeda
